EXHIBITION INSURANCE

Registration deadline: 7th March 2024 Via e-mail to: cs-austria@ rxglobal.com

I. INSURING EXHIBITS

In what situations does expo insurance apply?

What damages does the insurance policy cover

What items are insured? What items are not insured?

When is a 'deductible' sum payable?

When and to whom must the damage be reported When should a report be submitted to the police? How well are you insured? On the way to, during, and on the return journey from the specified RX Wien GmbH-organised trade fair, anywhere in Europe.

In transit: 'Full coverage' according to A TB 2001

During the trade fair: Fire (fire, lightning strike, explosion), theft, burglary and damage caused by mains water leakage, breakage, bending, dents, damage, transportation accidents and natural disasters in accordance with the underlying conditions of the contract.

Exhibits, expo booths fixtures and fittings, your devices.

Valuables such as genuine jewellery, cash, real carpets and furs. Please note, exhibits must be kept under supervision during official visiting times, and out of the way of unauthorised individuals in a suitable manner outside visiting hours. Smaller items of value (such as laptops, digital cameras, projectors etc.) must be stored in lockable cabinets or containers. If damage to an insured item occurs while it is being assembled, mounted, dismantled or removed; if damage occurs while the item is being started, is in use, or is part of a demonstration; if there is damage to insured items during packing and unpacking at the exhibition venue at the beginning and end of the fair.

A deduction of \leqslant 250 per incidence of damage will only be charged in cases of theft, robbery, breakage, bending, denting or deformation.

All cases of damage must be reported to Marsh Austria GmbH immediately.

In cases of theft or fire, immediately after discovering the damage.

The agreed status is for a 'first risk' payment. In such cases, damages will be compensated up to the amount of the insurance sum. No claims of underinsurance can be entertained. The insurance sum selected should reflect the actual value required to cover damage.

II. EXHIBITION ACCIDENT INSURANCE

Where does the insurance apply?

Who is insured?

Which risk is insured?

How well are you insured?

Within the exhibition premises in the pre-show assembly period, during the show and during the post-show dismantling period.

The exhibitor and his/her exhibition staff.

Permanent invalidity resulting from an accident.

Up to \in 72,500 per person to a maximum of \in 145,500 for all individuals present at the booth.

HOW SHOULD THE INSURANCE POLICY BE INITIATED?

How is an insurance policy initiated?

When is the premium to be paid?

Who is the insurer?

Which insurance terms and conditions apply?*

Tick the box next to the insurance sum required for your expo booth on this insurance registration form, add the date, an official stamp and signature, and return it to RX Wien GmbH.

Together with payment of the registration and space rental fee on receipt of the invoice. Insurance coverage only comes into force once payment has been received in full.

Wiener Städtische Allgemeine Versicherung AG

AÖTB 2001 ('Full coverage' option) and the special conditions for insuring goods at trade fairs and company open days (1995). General terms and conditions for accident insurance (AUBV 1995). Please note, in divergence from the conditions of the VersVG between the insured party and RX Wien GmbH, it is agreed that the insured party submits all claims resulting from this contract straight to the insurer.
